

BAY AREA spaces

The premier magazine of design

IN THIS ISSUE

iCOLOR FOR iPHONE

NEW DIGS / NEW DINING

TOURING TEXTILES

[SECOND HOME
SECRETS](#)

PARTNER DEALS

GETAWAY DEALS

DESIGNER TIPS

QUICK LINKS

Register Now

Bay Area Spaces on Facebook

Follow Spaces Bay Area
on Twitter

Related Topics:

Haute stuff
Shop talk
In style
The tasting room
In the garden
At the table
Around town

Exclusively on SpacesMag.com:

Video on Tiffany's
tabletop settings

SIGN UP FOR HAUTE LINKS

Issue #5

JUNE 2009

Welcome to Spaces' Haute Links! You'll be the first to find out about upcoming events in the Bay Area, trends in food and design, shop and restaurant openings and who's who in the industry. You'll also be privy to special offers from Spaces magazine and our partners.

Spaces, current issue

The June issue of Spaces is available on newsstands now, or check it out online. Here's a sampling of what you'll find:

Orlando Diaz-Azguay on designing a second home
Dining at Domaine Chandon
Tips on buying towels

 Forward to a Friend

Read on to find out what's new in the world of home and design:

Designer tip of the month: Vary door fronts for interest

Add interest and break up rows of cabinets by employing different face treatments. Lines and circles etched in monolithic pantry doors, for instance, imbue a quiet elegance, while the use of colored, textured and sandblasted glass in cabinet fronts provides an airy look yet still obscures glassware and dishes.

- Marie Chan, ASID, InterSpace Design

Click here to submit your design tip and photo.